THE "NEW CHRIST" IN TOWN.

George J. Schweinfurth of Rockford, Ill., Visiting His Local Followers.

The Rev. George J. Schweinfurth the new Christ, who has established a "heaven" at Rockford, Ill., and is teaching that he is Christ in His second coming, is in Kansas City. He arrived at Kansas City yesterday and is at the home of Mrs. Ward, the leader of the Church Triumphant, as the people who follow him call themselves, at 914 East Fourteenth street. The visit is an unusual one as Schweinfurth rarely leaves "heaven," holding that those who wish to see and hear should come to him. He entertained those who came to his farm house, and teaches them by his daily life. Schweinfurth is a fine looking man, of medium height with a full beard cut much as that of Christ as represented in most pictures. He is a man whose education is apparent from his conversation and is a splendid conversationalist. The "new Christ" will address his followers at Mrs. Ward's home Sunday.

Schweinfurth was born in Ohio in 1853. When a young man he entered the Methodist ministry. He was preaching at a small town in Mich., when he met Mrs. Beekman, who was the founder of a small religious sect, to which she was preaching the second coming of Christ. She declared Schweinfurth to be the Christ and he removed with her to her home in Illinois and the two preached together until her death. After that Schweinfurth established his retreat of "heaven" and gathered about him a band of followers all of whom believe that he is the son of God. The sect obtained much notoriety from the fact that it was announced that the miracle of immaculate conception occurred among them. The new church has branches in twenty-seven different cities and towns.—K. C. Star, May 28th.

The Lady Next Door.

Mrs. W. envied the lady next door because she always seemed so well and happy. "She enjoys life and I don't," said the discontented woman. "How I would like to change places with her!" At last she made the acquaintance of the object of her envy, and this was what the lady told her: "Happy! Of course I am, for I enjoy perfect health. My dear Mrs. W., your face tells me why you are not happy. You are suffering from functional derangements. I was a martyr to female weaknesses for years, but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured me, as it will you if you will try it. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case or price ($1.00) returned.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, one a dose. Cure headache, constipation, and indigestion.

Crazed by Her Lover.

Osceola, May 27.—May Cooley, eldest daughter of Eli Cooley, a respected pioneer of this place, is now a raving maniac whose life is despaired of, all because the man she loved and to whom she was to have been married a few days hence has married another woman. William Hobbs formerly of this town, now a resident of Carbon Center, is the man. He and Miss Cooley had been engaged for a long time. The wedding day was agreed upon three different times and, although the bride's tresson had been prepared, the nuptials were postponed. A few weeks ago Hobbs wrote asking that the wedding take place very soon. Miss Cooley assented. Last Monday the expectant bride was told that the man upon whom her affections were centered had married another woman in Bates county. Her reason left her and, although physicians have been in constant attendance, she has been sinking gradually until now there is little chance for her recovery.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Wm. C. Moore Gone Wrong.

Osceola Sun: Treasurer Wm. Pence and circuit clerk, J. Belt Hammond, have recently woke up to the realization that the gentleman whose name heads this announcement, has been systematically robbing them. His method was to present the officials aforesaid, orders which have proven to be forgeries for fees remaining due in their offices to citizens of the county. In this way Moore succeeded in obtaining about $72. He has suddenly disappeared.

Wm. C. Moore is the son of Chas. Moore, residing near Johnson City in this county. He read law in the office of ex-Attorney General Boone, of Clinton, Mo. He came to Osceola last winter and hung out his shingle under the firm name of Chappel & Moore, Mr. Chappel residing in Appleton City. He was afterward admitted to the bar by Judge Stratton at the March term of our court, of 1891. Moore is of respectable parentage, and his downfall is regretted by everyone.

An Awful Mean Trick.

Appleton City Journal. The meanest boys in the State live at Osceola. The other day they took an empty beer keg to the river filled it with water and anchored it in the stream. They then went back to town and caused the news to get out in whispers that a keg of the best brand was at anchor in the river to be kept cool until night when it was to be enjoyed by the thirsty. The nice crowd, who are never supposed to indulge, took the cue which others had given them so slyly. When the shades of night had fallen the nice fellows stole a march on the other crowd and carried off the keg taking turns in lugging it over a half mile on their shoulders. When they reached the quiet place which they sought, and after a long struggle with the tightly swollen plug, got the keg open, they discovered the true inwardness of the joke. They also discovered that the other crowd had followed them and the laugh the latter had at their expense was "not a little and quiet."

Plattsburg, Mo., May 32.—A. E. Meininger, one of the oldest merchants of this city, was returning from a visit to day to his brother-in-law, living north of here, accompanied by his two daughters, Ella and Rosa, and when crossing Smith's fork at what is known as the Parvin ford, the buggy was upset and all three were drowned. The young ladies were aged 10 and 16 years and were beloved by all who knew them. Mr. Meininger's only remaining child is the wife of the Rev. J. A. D. Hughes, a nephew of the late Judge Sawyer of Independence.

The Galloway Cattle.

We invite the attention of farmers and stockmen to the public sale of Galloway cattle to be held here in Butler on Saturday, June 20th, by these well known reliable breeders, the Inter State Galloway cattle company of Kansas City, Mo. The popular breed of cattle is hornless, saving the expense and cruelty of dehorning and much goring and trouble in handling if dehorning is not practiced. They are hardy, saving untold quantities of feed, keeping in good condition when the thin skinned, short haired and tenderer animal would hardly exist. They are shortlegged and blocky, with great size and substance. They have a uniform color which is envied by the breeders of haphazard color. The quality of their meat is superior to that of any other breed and the proportion of net meat to offals is very large which accounts in great measure for their always bringing the highest price on the Smithfield market where all the improved breeds are brought into competition. It also accounts for their success on the block at the fat stock shows of this country; steers from this company's herd winning first and sweepstakes at Kansas City and Chicago in 1887, and sweepstakes at the World's Fair at New Orleans. The Galloways have long shaggy coats impervious to storm. Their robes are equal to those of the almost extinct buffalo, and are being tanned and sold at a profit to the breeder. Forty head, consisting of about thirty cows and ten bulls of this blocky, beefy, hardy and hornless breed will be offered on the date above mentioned. They are worthy specimens of this splendid breed and represent the choicest strains of blood. Send for catalogue and attend the sale. See advertisement.

We are in hopes that Col. H. Bledsoe will conclude to present his claims and enter the race for the governorship in the coming campaign. If the Col. concludes to do so, the Gazette together with the people of grand old Cass, will stand solidly for his nomination. We will speak further in regard to his making the race. No man in the state is better liked and has more friends than Col. Bledsoe.—Pleasant Hill Gazette.

A colored wedding in high life took place the other day at Nevada. The bride is a true woman who shines with equal effulgence in the parlor or kitchen. The groom is a democrat, a Baptist, a hog raiser and a carpet beater. Such a union can hardly fail to insure a large measure of happiness to both of the contracting parties.—K. C. Star.

A Prize Fighter's End.

Lynn, Mass., May 26.—James Burns of Lynn, late of Marlboro, who was knocked out in an eight round battle with Harry Tracy of Cambridge before the Lynn athletic club Monday evening, died this morning. The knock out blow broke a blood vessel in his brain and he never recovered consciousness. Tracy was arrested this afternoon on a charge of manslaughter. The arrests of the referee, seconds and management will follow.

About four hundred of the debt ridden and down trodden farmers of Kansas, are on a junketing trip to Cincinnati this week attending a convention. They went in a special train. How soon will they pay off their farm mortgages? How many of them were actually from the farm? What does it mean? How many of this illustrious four hundred are broken down politicians? It is the most absolute folly to try to better the condition of a starving (?) population to run off a thousands miles and "resolute." Better do like the rest of us, stay at home and work.—Vernon County Republican.

Fatal Mishap After a Funeral.

Springfield, Mo., May 31.—The wife of E. A. Rose, a prominent citizen, and Mrs. J. G. Newbill and little boy were returning from the funeral of Mrs. J. S. Cunningham this afternoon when the pony they were driving ran away and threw all three out. Mrs. Rose's neck was broken by the fall. The other two escaped with slight bruises.

A SCROFULOUS BOY.

Running Sores Covered his Body and Head. Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore, soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the underlip, which was very offensive. His head was covered with a scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was little more than a year old, of consumption (scrophulous, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the Cuticura Remedies, using all freely. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these. Five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out, then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After using a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. Mrs. E. S. Briggs, May 9, 1890. 612 Clay St., Bloomington, Ill. My grandson remains perfectly well. No signs of scrophulous and no sores.
